

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOLUME VIII.—NUMBER 47.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1880.

WHOLE NUMBER 411.

One square, one insertion, $1.00
A liberal deduction for each subsequent insertion.
Regular advertisements will find their rates to be no
moderate as those of any other respectable paper.
Business Notices, 15 cents per line. Advertising
Items in Local Columns, 25 cents per line.
Announcements of Marriages, Births and Deaths
inserted free of cost.
Obituaries, Tributes of Respect, &c., will, here after, be charged at the rate of 5 cents per line
instead of 10 cents, as heretofore.

OUR JOB OFFICE IS COMPLETE
in every particular, and our Job Printer is knowledgeable in the line.
Papers to suit the times.

STONEWALL JACKSON'S DEATH.

BY PAUL M. HUBBARD.

The lightning flashed across the heaven, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
The lightning flashed across the heaven, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

As darkness fell across the foe, and 'neath
the stars
Our hearts were turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

We all looked up to Uncle Tom, who sat beside the fire,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

For memory brought him back again to times of yore,
When often in the light and light he fought
the battle,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

How often he had seen the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

For the better for a soldier like Montgomery,
Than live to see his comrades from a hated foe,
But never again come upon the field of battle.

With heavy hearts we laid to rest, but mind
not to sleep,
But every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

It was the camp from which, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

At last within our tent the precious load
was laid,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

For words were weak to tell a tale when grief has mastered men,
But every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

But, boys, it was a fleeting dream, a vacant stare
on each
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

He did not see the canvas shaken by the sudden
blast,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

Then he turned aside, and smiling, said, with voice
of one in pain:
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

Let us cross the foaming river, let us rest
on the bank,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

Then we waited, boys, and watched him, but no
other word he said,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

For across the foaming river had our leader
sprung,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled,
And every eye was turned to the light, the first
thunder rolled.

Behind the Scenes.

BY PAUL M. HUBBARD.

Illusions are a matter of time, place and circumstance. Their duration is an inverse ratio to experience. Sooner or later you learn that Santa Claus is a myth, and "Mother Goose" a string of fabulous impossibilities, and that William Tell is banished with the gentle Pecos into the airy regions of chaos. As you grow into advanced views of life you discover that there is no dividing line between the teachings of Socrates, Plato, Confucius and Buddha. You learn that humanity is only protoplasm. You have well-grounded scientific doubts
as to whether life is worth the living at all.

There is one illusion that usually outlasts all others. Sometimes it lasts all through life. It depends upon yourself. If you are wise you can preserve it and the wisdom consists,
by a paradox, in not knowing too much. It is the illusion of the drama.

An inquiring mind is sure to bring trouble to its possessor. It is ignorance that is bliss, for instance, at the theater. When you gaze enchanted into stately marble halls you do not want to remember that it is, after all,
only unbleached muslin which the sewing woman has put together, and the stage carpenter stretched on frames and the scenic artist painted. When the curtain rises on the first scene—
an ottoman, standing carelessly in the center of the saloon; chairs on either side the centre table; a piece of paper
that happens to lie across the room on the carpet; when you first catch the scene as a whole, you do not care to analyze your sensations when you walked behind the scenes in the morning and some one took you into the
"property room," where the "property
man" had a diagram of all the scene,
even to the bit of paper lying carelessly on the floor. As the elegant drop curtain falls, you may remember how, when you were on a tour of inspection through the green-room and wandering in the labyrinth among the "flats" and "wings" how you saw
the great wheels, and their dozens of ropes, and coils and pulleys, and the great crank the man turned to bring the curtain up or down. When the fire flickers up in the grate before
which some delicate stage heroine sits,
you would rather forget it is only of gilded wood, with gas jets turned on through holes in terra cotta.

How, indeed, can you shiver sympathetically at that dreary winter
scene if you have watched the scenic artist paint in the bare trees and counted the slats of the revolving stage, out of which the cut-paper snow falls? How can you start at the thunder and lightning after you have been in the "property-room" and seen
the contrivances by which it is produced?

One would beware how he robs life of its illusions. We are not apt to have too many at best, and those we have should be cherished rather than destroyed.

Over-Sensitive About Their Age.

Isn't it ridiculous, girls that you should become so apprehensive of your years after passing the age of twenty-five? Why this fear of thirty? Why at thirty a woman should be in her budding maturity and development. At thirty, if she has any character at all, it has been rounded out
by experience, observation, comparison and reflection. At thirty she has looked on many sides of the world and her judgment is matured. At thirty she is no longer the "chit of a girl," but the companion of a man.
At thirty her physical attractiveness
should have attained a permanent ripeness which should show little signs of change till forty-five. This regarding the most brilliant period of a woman's life to be mere girlhood, to the era of comparative immaturity and experience of eighteen and twenty is a mistake and a bit of old-fashioned barbarism. It is based and maintained on an underlying sentiment of mere animalism.

CHIROGRAPHICAL FEATS.—A few days ago we recorded a very remarkable feat in chirography by an Ottawa (Ill.) printer who wrote over 2,800 words upon a postal card. We have now received another card from the same place, containing the sixth and seventh chapters of St. Matthew, and the first, second and third chapters of St. John, up to and including a part of the thirteenth verse, making in all 3,274 words, which would be considerably more than two columns of the Chicago Tribune. The work was done by lamplight, and without a glass, by Neil J. Brown, who claims that by daylight he can write 4,000
words.—[Chicago Tribune.]

Jim Keene recently sent twenty kegs of gold to Chicago in payment for wheat. Each keg weighed about 300 pounds and contained $75,000,
making in all $1,500,000.

An Astonished Conductor.

BY PAUL M. HUBBARD.

"Get aboard, old limpy," said a pert conductor to an aged, plainly dressed lame man, standing on the platform for the signal to depart: "get aboard, old limpy, or you will be left."

At the signal the old gentleman
quietly stepped aboard and took a seat
by himself. When the conductor, in taking up the tickets, came to him and demanded his fare he replied:

"I do not pay fare on this road."
"Then I will put you off at the next station."

"The conductor passed on, and a passenger who had seen the transaction said to him:

"Did you know that old gentleman?"
"No, I did not."
"Well, it is Mr. —, the president
of this road."

The conductor changed color and
bit his lips, but went on and finished taking up the tickets. As soon as he had done he returned to "old limpy,"
and said: "Sir, I resign my station
as conductor."

"Sit down here, young man, I do not wish to harm you; but run this road for profit, and to accommodate the public, and we make it an invariable rule to treat every person with perfect civility whatever garb he wears or whatever infirmity he suffers. This rule is imperative upon every one of our employees. I shall not remove you; for what you have done, but it must not be repeated."

That conductor afterward never saw among his passengers another
"old limpy."

Intended Him for a Lawyer.

An old lady walked into a lawyer's
office lately when the following conversation took place:

Lady—Squire I called to see if you would like to take this boy and make a lawyer of him.

Lawyer—"The boy appears very young, madam; how old is he?"

Lady—"Seven years, sir."

Lawyer—"He is too young, decidedly too young. Have you no boys older?"

Lady—"O, yes I have several, but we have concluded to make farmers of the others; I told the old man that I thought this little fellow would make a first-rate lawyer; so I called to see if you would take him."

Lawyer—"No, madam, he is too young yet to commence the study of a profession. But why do you think this boy any better calculated for a lawyer than your older sons?"

Lady—"Why, you see, sir, he is just seven years old to-day. When he was only five he'd lie like thunder; when he got to six he was saucy and impudent as any critter could be; and now he'll steal anything he can lay his hands on."

Boards of Pardon.

The tender-hearted Governors of the present day seem to regard forgiving as an eccentricity of genius rather than as a crime. Hardin, alias
Dr. Emmons, who was so unfortunate as to forget his real name in the confusion of so many aliases in signing checks upon the Lebanon and Mt.
Sterling banks, was pardoned by Kentucky's Governor, and in consequence
the Cloverport bank mourns the loss of $1,250. New York's Governor, seeing how nicely the executive clemency plan worked down here, turns out of Sing Sing Thomas R. Lewis, Babbitt's Best Soap man, who got away with $250,000 of his employer's money. As a guard against the too great exhibition of gubernatorial gush,
many States have constituted boards
of pardon, composed of equal parts of sense and sentiment, and they are said to work exceedingly well.—[Bowling Green Intelligencer.]

A woman in Stockton, Cal., who had a drunken husband, was waiting
late at night for him to come home.
The lamp was in her bedroom and she was in the parlor. Hearing a noise outside, as if a man who was drunk,
was trying to find the gate, she went out, and sure enough a drunken man was there. She helped him into the parlor, as she had been used to doing and placed him carefully on the lounge. After a hard struggle she got his coat and vest off, and then pulled at the boots (as she thought they were), but they would not come off.
At length she felt up to the ankle
and found that the man had shoes on —something that her husband never wore. Striking a light she saw that it was a stranger, and the yell that followed awakened the drunkard, who fled incontinently from the room.

When the Adam monument at Elmira is unveiled some one should be selected to make an Abel speech.— [Gris. There can't be Adam monument erected without some Eve-minded paragrapher must have something to say about it. Gris, you deserve a Caining.—[Wheeling Leader.]

Served Him Right.

BY PAUL M. HUBBARD.

A naughty nephew has swindled
his uncle, a foolish Kentucky farmer,
out of a bride. The old man was well-to-do, and his nephew lived with him on Green River. A charming country lass in the neighborhood was very poor, yet disciplined to marry wealth when it was handicapped
with old age. The old man's en-tretries did not cease, and finally, in his despair, he enlisted his nephew, who was prevailed upon to argue the case with the charger. The confiding old farmer never suspected anything when his nephew suggested the propriety of capturing the young lady with presents, and giving her an earnest of what she might expect after marriage.
The suggestion was received favorably,
and the old man, thinking the younger the better judge of such points gave him $150 for the purchase of the gifts. The nephew went down to Evansville a few days ago and bought some handsome dresses, jewelry
and other bribes, and took them back to his Green River home. The old man presented them to the lady freely
as a token of regard, hinting that if she would only become his wife she could have as many duplicates of the lot as she pleased. The young lady went to work and made up the dresses
and then ran away with the nephew.

A Modern Ruth.

A young lady from the South was
wooded and won by a young California
physician. About the time the wedding was to come off the young man
lost his entire fortune. He wrote the young lady a letter releasing her from
her engagement.

And what does the dear good girl
do? Why, she takes a lump of gold
which her lover had sent her in his
prosperity as a keepsake, and having
it manufactured into a ring, forwards
it to him with the following inscription:

"Entreat me not to leave thee, or
to return from following after thee;
for whither thou goest I will go; and
where thou lodgest I will lodge; thy
people shall be my people and thy God my God; where thou diest will I
die, and there will I be buried, if
aught but death part thee and me."

Fortune again smiled on the young
physician, and he subsequently returned to the South to wed the sweet girl
he loved, and who loved him with
such undying affection.

"Try not to pass," the old man
said; so the urchin made it "next"
instead.—[New Haven Register.] And
the old man chuckled and nudged his
pork, for he held both bawlers and the
joker card.—[Bridgeport Standard.]

And the fourth man muttered, "We
can't afford to have so much talking
across the board."—[New York Graphic.] Then a smile o'er the urchin's face
did steal, as he threw down six cards
and exclaimed, "Mis-deal."—[Norris-
town Herald.]

Kentucky legislator boastfully:
"What's the use spending any money
on the damn schools. I only went to
(hic) school three months, and look
where I am. I'm going to (hic) do
sompin', I am. I tell you, my wife's (hic) proud 'o me. Gimmy chaw ter-
backer."—[Louisville Argus.]

It is estimated that more miles of
railroad will be built during 1880 in
this country than during any year before. About 9,000 miles of new road
are already under contract.

An observing old lady says: It's the
quiet young man in the corner, who
lets his rivals do all the talking, that
usually marries the girl."

Philadelphia has the bulge on Chicago in one respect. It is named in the bible.

FISH BROS.
FARM WAGONS!

HOLMES' THIMBLE,
Self-Oiling Skeins.

These Wagons are now offered
to the farmers of Central Kentucky, with
a number of Very Important and
Recent Improvements made in
the last six months, the most important of
which is the Holmes Self-Oiling
Thimble Skein, avoiding the great
inconvenience of removing the wheels to
oil them.

Holmes' Skein and Boaz does away
with all side draft, the great objection in
all other Skeins, as the Skein is perfectly straight.

These Wagons, with this late improvement, will run from 200 to 600 lbs.
Lighter than any wagon not provided
with them, in proportion to the size and
load.

Fish Bros. & Co. have the exclusive
right to use them in the United States.

The Boaz is so constructed that it
is impossible for them to loosen or turn in
the wood.

They take in one-third more wood in
the Skein than the old style.

The Boaz to them is a perfect-fitting
and band. It can not lose any oil at the point.

The Axles are one size larger than the
corresponding sizes of wagons not using
the Holmes Skein.

The Wheels are boiled in oil before
painting; hence the tires have not loosened
in a single instance within our knowledge, having sold 600 of them in the last
six years.

These Wagons will be for sale in all
sizes, as well as Iron Axles, by D. S.
Maxwell, at Alton Springs, who will
have wagons on exhibition on public and
Court days at Danville, Harrodsburg
and Stanford, and by us at Lebanon.

Every Wagon is guaranteed in writing by us.

PHILLIPS & BRO.,
General Agents for Central Ky.

Also Agents for Avery & Sons' Cast
and Steel Plates at Wholesale and Retail.

A Modern Ruth.

BY PAUL M. HUBBARD.

A young lady from the South was
wooded and won by a young California
physician. About the time the wedding was to come off the young man
lost his entire fortune. He wrote the
young lady a letter releasing her from
her engagement.

And what does the dear good girl
do? Why, she takes a lump of gold
which her lover had sent her in his
prosperity as a keepsake, and having
it manufactured into a ring, forwards
it to him with the following inscrip-
tion:

"Entreat me not to leave thee, or
to return from following after thee;
for whither thou goest I will go; and
where thou lodgest I will lodge; thy
people shall be my people and thy
God my God; where thou diest will I
die, and there will I be buried, if
aught but death part thee and me."

Fortune again smiled on the young
physician, and he subsequently returned to the South to wed the sweet girl
he loved, and who loved him with
such undying affection.

"Try not to pass," the old man
said; so the urchin made it "next"
instead.—[New Haven Register.] And
the old man chuckled and nudged his
pork, for he held both bawlers and the
joker card.—[Bridgeport Standard.]

And the fourth man muttered, "We
can't afford to have so much talking
across the board."—[New York Graph-
ic.] Then a smile o'er the urchin's face
did steal, as he threw down six cards
and exclaimed, "Mis-deal."—[Norris-
town Herald.]

Kentucky legislator boastfully:
"What's the use spending any money
on the damn schools. I only went to
(hic) school three months, and look
where I am. I'm going to (hic) do
sompin', I am. I tell you, my wife's (hic) proud 'o me. Gimmy chaw ter-
backer."—[Louisville Argus.]

It is estimated that more miles of
railroad will be built during 1880 in
this country than during any year before. About 9,000 miles of new road
are already under contract.

An observing old lady says: It's the
quiet young man in the corner, who
lets his rivals do all the talking, that
usually marries the girl."

Philadelphia has the bulge on Chicago in one respect. It is named in the bible.

FISH BROS.
FARM WAGONS!

HOLMES' THIMBLE,
Self-Oiling Skeins.

These Wagons are now offered
to the farmers of Central Kentucky, with
a number of Very Important and
Recent Improvements made in
the last six months, the most important of
which is the Holmes Self-Oiling
Thimble Skein, avoiding the great
inconvenience of removing the wheels to
oil them.

Holmes' Skein and Boaz does away
with all side draft, the great objection in
all other Skeins, as the Skein is perfectly straight.

These Wagons, with this late improvement, will run from 200 to 600 lbs.
Lighter than any wagon not provided
with them, in proportion to the size and
load.

Fish Bros. & Co. have the exclusive
right to use them in the United States.

The Boaz is so constructed that it
is impossible for them to loosen or turn in
the wood.

They take in one-third more wood in
the Skein than the old style.

The Boaz to them is a perfect-fitting
and band. It can not lose any oil at the point.

The Axles are one size larger than the
corresponding sizes of wagons not using
the Holmes Skein.

The Wheels are boiled in oil before
painting; hence the tires have not loosened
in a single instance within our knowledge, having sold 600 of them in the last
six years.

These Wagons will be for sale in all
sizes, as well as Iron Axles, by D. S.
Maxwell, at Alton Springs, who will
have wagons on exhibition on public and
Court days at Danville, Harrodsburg
and Stanford, and by us at Lebanon.

Every Wagon is guaranteed in writing by us.

PHILLIPS & BRO.,
General Agents for Central Ky.

Also Agents for Avery & Sons' Cast
and Steel Plates at Wholesale and Retail.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

BY PAUL M. HUBBARD.

BAPTIST.—Rev. J. M. Bates, Pastor. Services
on Second and Fourth Sundays, morning and night. Prayer Meeting every Wednesday afternoon. Sunday School at 9:30 A. M. R. E. Barrow, Superintendent.

CHRISTIAN.—Worship by the congregation every Lord's day. Preaching by Eld. Jos. Elyon on First and Third Lord's days. Sunday School
at 9:30 A. M. J. S. Sims, Superintendent.

METHODIST, SOUTH.—Rev. J. S. Sims, Pastor. Services every Sunday morning and night.
Prayer Meetings Thursday nights. Sunday School
at 9:30 A. M. J. S. Sims, Superintendent.

PRESBYTERIAN, SOUTH.—No Pastor. Union Sunday School at 9:30. John W. East, Superintendent. Union Prayer Meeting Wednesday nights.

PRESBYTERIAN, NORTH.—Rev. J. S. Sims, Pas-
tor. Services every Sunday morning and night.
Prayer Meetings Thursday nights. Sunday School
at 9:30 A. M. J. S. Sims, Superintendent.

HOTELS.

ST. ASAPH HOTEL,
STANFORD KY.

THOS. RICHARDS, Prop'r.
OPENED TO THE PUBLIC FEB. 22nd, 1878

FARE, $2.00 PER DAY.
CENTRALLY LOCATED.

Special Accommodations Afforded Commercial Travelers.

Baggage Transferred Free of Charge.

MYERS HOTEL,
STANFORD, KY.

E. H. BURNSIDE, - Prop'r.

This Old and Well-Known
Hotel Still Maintains its High Reputation.

—AND—
Its Proprietor is Determined that it shall be Second to No Country
Hotel in the State in its Fare,
Appointments, or Attention to Comfort of its Guests.

Baggage will be conveyed to and from the depot
free of charge. Special accommodations for commercial travelers. The Bar will be always supplied with the choicest brands of Liquors and Cigars. An excellent Livery is attached.

MISCELLANEOUS.

N. SID PLATT,
No. 64 4th Street.

Louisville, - - Kentucky,
INVENTOR
AND MANUFACTURER
OF THE
"APOLLO YOKER" SHIRT.

Fine Lines of Men's Underwear.

Stanford Female College.
STANFORD, KY.

A SPEEDY solution of the vexed penitentiary problem has been offered to the Legislature. A responsible firm, contractors for the Big Sandy R. R., is anxious to employ 400 convicts to work on that road, and will give the best of security for their care and safe keeping for two years. The law as it now stands prevents such hiring out of convicts, but if our law makers are really in earnest about giving relief to the over-crowded establishment, they can not do so, so profitably and so promptly as by changing the law and letting the contractors have the men at once. We have seen this system operated in Virginia with great success by the same contractors who have made this application, and in nearly every instance the convict so hired was healthier and more contented than when shut up in prison walls. A long time will necessarily intervene before branch penitentiaries can be built, even after the law has passed to build them, and as this gives immediate relief, the Legislature might make the experiment, at least till more room is made for the prison.

It has never been our intention, nor have we ever censured the Governor for pardoning sick and diseased convicts from the Penitentiary, believing that in certain instances his action was both humane and commendable, and had he confined himself to those alone we would never have written a line against him. But, when he, without sense or reason, turns loose murderers, thieves, and others, upon a law-suffering public, before trial and before they have suffered anything whatever for their terrible crimes, and as long as he continues to unjustly remit fines that ought to be collected and paid into the depleted Treasury of the State, we do censure him, and will neglect no opportunity to show up his unworthy acts for public scorn and odium. Right in our county, alone, we know of several thousands of dollars of fines and forfeitures that he has remitted, while he has relieved his gambler friends in Louisville of $52,000 worth. Can our law-loving and law-abiding citizens look with approval at such a reckless and unwarranted abuse of the power they have conferred upon him?

The law allowing Sheriffs two guards to each prisoner transported to the Penitentiary has often presented the disgraceful sight of three burly men, with pistols buckled on the outside, escorting a poor little hand-cuffed convict that either one of them could carry under his arm. This is done to enslave the State out of the fees and mileage, which are just double what they ought to be, and the Sheriff, who has hired the men for a mere song, pockets the difference. We are glad, however, to see that the Senate has passed a bill reducing the number of guards to one, and if it will reduce the mileage to actual traveling expenses, a big step towards retrenchment and reform will have been accomplished.

It seems that Congress is not disposed to "let well enough alone" in the matter of finances. Bayard intends to push his resolution to remove the legal tender quality from the greenback; the champion of the House bill requiring National Banks to keep their reserves in coin, is anxious for its passage; while Culberson is red-hot to do away with the National Bank system, altogether. With these and other bills, if the finances do not become disturbed, it will not be because of the smart Alecks in Congress.

The Courier-Journal's correspondent makes a suggestion that the Legislature will do well to heed. It is to abolish all sinecure offices, beginning with the Register of the Land office and his clerks—a line of policy that would be an annual saving of from $50,000 to $75,000 to the State. The Land office has long been a useless and expensive luxury, and if the Legislature will cut it off, their present session will not have been entirely in vain.

Hon. J. Z. George has received the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator in Mississippi, and will succeed Senator Bruce, the only colored man in Congress. In Louisiana Hon. Randall L. Gibson, a man of sterling worth, and a genuine representative of his section, has received the Democratic caucus endorsement, and will be the Senator for that State.

The Louisville and Nashville R. R. has purchased a controlling interest in the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis R. R., thereby securing with what it has already 3,500 miles of road, the largest system by far in the South. The excellent management of the L. & N. has caused its stock to jump up to 121.

The Daily Yeoman is the only really good thing that comes from Frankfort, but unfortunately its subscribers never get it till the day after its publication. We know Major Stanton has his hands full already, but we hope he will look into the reason of the vexatious delay and remedy the evil.

The services of the Louisville Commercial have been well recognized by Hayes. Col. R. M. Kelley is retained as Pension Agent and Gen. Eli H. Murry is appointed to the Governorship of Utah. There is nothing like standing up for your friends.

As the Legislative correspondent of the Courier-Journal, Judge Chas. E. Kincaid is making an enviable reputation. His letters are well written, pointed and newsworthy, and are a pleasant feature of the "greatest paper in the South or West."

LEGISLATIVE DOINGS.

A legal advertising bill has passed the Senate.

The Legislature is thinking of imposing a tax on commercial travelers and druggists.

A bill to increase the penal jurisdiction of the town of Lancaster has passed the Senate.

Mr. Bruce has offered a bill to repeal the act creating a Court of Common Pleas in Lincoln, Boyle, Garrard, &c.

As though there were not pauper counties enough now, a solon wants "Meriwether" formed out of Whitley, Knox and Leno.

A bill to authorize Wayne County to refund the Court-house debt at a rate of interest not to exceed 6 per cent. has passed both Houses.

The Senate are discussing a bill to exempt $500 for female householders, seamstresses and others dependent upon themselves for support.

The Legislature is about to release a hundred convicts, whom the Doctors say will die if they longer remain in the Penitentiary. Why don't they put them to work on the Railroad?

The Committee appointed to examine the Penitentiary found it in a terrible condition, and recommended the release of eight convicts who were dying of disease, which was accordingly done.

Mr. Hill has presented a bill to make the education of a reputable female, less than 21 years of age, under a promise of marriage, a Penitentiary offense, and it should be passed by a rising vote.

Senator J. H. Bruce writes that he will procure as soon as possible the passage of the act authorizing the Trustees of Stanford to take $500 worth of stock in the Town Hall. LATER.—It has passed the Senate.

The Senate has very wisely adopted a resolution directing the Committee to report favorably on no bill giving sheriffs or other officers longer time to pay the revenues into the Treasury, than now allowed by law.

There is a bill pending to reduce the salaries of Criminal judges to $2,000, but Mr. Rowlett, of Hart, has offered an amendment to cut it down $500 more. He also proposes to reduce the Governor's salary to $2,500.

It is very likely that the fees of Justices for attendance as members of the County Court will be reduced to $2 per day, and as Examining Courts to $1.50, not over two days pay to be allowed on any examining trial.

The House, after a lengthy debate, has passed a bill to reduce the salary of the Superintendent of Public Instruction to $2,000, his first clerk to $1,000 and the second to $500. The disposition seems to be to cut all the salaries, to which the taxpayer gladly responds, "Amen."

A bill to redivide the State into Circuit Court judicial districts to be formed of contiguous counties and each district to be allowed 240 judicial days, and to abolish Common Pleas Courts wherever they can be, has passed both branches of the Legislature; but there is a hitch over some amendments.

A majority of the Committee fearing that if they reported favorably upon the Whipping Post bill it might cook their political goose, gave it as their opinion that it ought not to pass, but it was made a special order for yesterday, when, in the name of law and order, retrenchment and reform, we hope it passed.

When John D. White, the Republican member from Clay, offered a resolution not to extend the session longer than sixty days, fixed by law, Senator Blackburn, who hopes to hold on to his per diem that long, moved to postpone the further consideration of the subject to the 4th of July, and it was adopted. This may have been intended as a joke, but the people who pay for the thing don't enjoy that kind of fun.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

Julius Favre, the eminent French Statesman, died in France Tuesday, aged 71.

Chas. O'Connor, the venerable jurist of New York, is about to marry the noted Mrs. Hicks-Lord.

They do say that our Representative, Mr. E. S. Goode, is about the best looking member in the House.

The Courier-Journal calls John D. White, the Republican member of Clay, the Roaring Bull of Bashan.

The pay of the Supervisors of the census is $500 and the Enumerators $4 per day. The job lasts about a month.

Thomas Walker killed another negro named Wallace Robinson, in a quarrel over a woman, at Harrodsburg, Monday.

There will be a proviso to the appropriation for the pay of Marshals, that none of the money is to go for partisan work at the polls.

Warren Bain, the father of Geo. W. Bain, the temperance orator, died at Lexington Tuesday from the effects of a fall from a scaffold.

The racing statistics of the United States show that the get of Enquirer won last year $45,065, while that of his sire, Lamington, won $49,749.

Lucy Walton Rhett Horton, who shot John H. Morgan, son of Senator Morgan, has been held in $1,000 bail for action of the grand jury at Washington City.

The largest and grandest banquet ever given in America is being prepared in Cincinnati, for the Southern business men, to take place on the opening of the Southern R. R.

At a meeting of the Cincinnati Railroad Directors, last Saturday, it was shown that the total earnings of the road since the new Company took control is $429,147 to $139,899 03 for operating expenses.

The Republican Legislature of Maine has elected a Governor in the person of one Davis, and Chamberlain has surrendered his power to him and as a recompense has been appointed General of the Militia.

This Legislature has possession of the State House, while the Fusionists occupy a Hall. Two Governors and two Legislatures ought certainly to satisfy as small a State as Maine, but from the news from there people are far from being happy.

Congress is about to restore Fritz John Porter to his rank in the army. If this is done he will claim his back pay which now amounts to $75,000.

Henry Van Pelt, engineer at the steam distillery of Van Andele in Mercer, was caught in the cog-wheel, this week, and instantly killed.

Arthur P. Gorman, Democrat, was elected on the 20th as the successor of Senator Whyte, of Maryland, whose term expires on the 4th of March.

Suits to the amount of $62,127, alleged to be due the Government, have been brought against Weldon Oneal, late United States Marshal for Kentucky.

One O. H. Burbridge has sued Geo. G. Graddock, of the Paris True Kintabulim, for $15,000 on an alleged libel. Burbridge is a brother of the notorious General Burbridge.

The Department of Agriculture estimates the present cotton crop at 5,020,387 bales of 450 pounds each, and the value in round numbers at $231,000,000, against $193,000,000 in 1878.

The little actress, Emma Vaders, who fell through the trap door at Library Hall, Louisville, last Spring, and broke her leg, has obtained a judgment against the Polytechnic School for $4,800.

The defalcation of Cashier Rhorer, of the Louisville Savings Bank is now said to amount to over $110,000, and the old man has been lodged in jail. The depositors of the bank are promised their full amounts.

Duke Flemming, who shot and killed a negro woman at the Cynthiana Fair two or three years ago and ran off to Texas to escape punishment, got his deserts a few days since in the shape of a pistol ball in his heart.

Within forty-eight hours up to Saturday night, at Chicago, there had been two murders, three suicides, one death from poison administered by another hand, and a highway robbery in broad daylight on a frequented street.

The Supervisors of the Census from Kentucky have been appointed as follows: First District, Sam M. Gaines; Second, Jos. W. Winlock; Third, which embraces this and adjoining counties, Speed S. Fry; Fourth, Geo. Stoll, Fifth, Wm. Hoffman.

A negro named Charles Smith, an escaped convict from the Kentucky Penitentiary, burned a barn near Walton the other night, and was captured and hung by a mob for it. This may be said to be a genuine case of jumping from the frying pan into the fire.

The Democrats of the 7th Judicial District will hold their Convention to nominate a Circuit Judge and Commonwealth's Attorney at Lebanon on the 23rd of April. We hope and believe that Hon. C. A. Hardin will be selected as the standard-bearer for the Judgeship.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s Commercial Agency give the number of financial failures last year at 6,358, with liabilities amounting to $98,149,053, against 10,478 failures in 1878, with $234,383,132. The failures in Kentucky number 138, and the liabilities are set down at $1,546,577.

After a trial of fifty-eight days the jury in the case of the Rev. Hayden, for killing Mary Stannard, failed to agree and were discharged. The trial was at New Haven, Conn., and has created a great deal of interest. It is understood that the jury stood eleven for acquittal and one for murder.

The Louisville, Cincinnati & Lexington Railroad advertise for bids until February 1, 1880, for the completion of the graduation, masonry, trestling, bridging and track-laying of the Northern Division of the Cumberland & Ohio Railroad, extending from Shelbyville to Bloomfield, Ky. Plans and specifications can be seen in the Chief Engineer's office, Louisville.

Last week we noticed in this column the marriage of Hiram Berry, a wealthy liquor dealer of Frankfort to Mollie Taylor, a fallen angel of Louisville. It since turns out that the old man was not drunk when the knot was tied, but that the affair was a premeditated one. He has, however, applied for a divorce, but from present appearances, it will be hard for him to get out of the scrape.

The President has made the following nominations, which have been affirmed: James Russell Lowell, of Massachusetts, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to England; John W. Foster, of Indiana, Minister to Russia; Lucius Fairchild, of Wisconsin, Minister to Spain; Philip H. Morgan, of Louisiana, Minister to Mexico; Eli H. Murray, of Kentucky, Governor of Utah Territory; Robert M. Kelly, Pension Agent, Louisville, Ky.

BOYLE COUNTY.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Jas. R. Gilkerson, formerly of Danville, to Miss Sallie Edeken at Lebanon, Ky.

The survivors of the Mexican war now living in Boyle and surrounding counties are requested to meet at the Court-House in Danville February 7, at 2 p. m.

The "Danville Chivalric Club" will present "A Husband to Order" and "Rough Diamond" at the Chapel of Bell Seminary on Tuesday night next. Admission, 25 cents.

Dr. Cowan's new store room has been rented to D. S. Himm, formerly of the firm of Hackney & Himm, who will open a stock of shoes, tinware, house furnishing goods, pumps, &c.

Gen. Speed & Fry has been appointed by the President as Supervisor of the U. S. Census of the Third District of Kentucky comprising 26 counties.

An abortive attempt was made on Monday night to burglarize the store-house of Mrs. Berners, an Italian fruit vendor on Third street, but Mrs. B. and her children by lustily screaming routed the robbers and brought a crowd. This is the same house in which one negro was killed and another wounded while attempting to make an entrance a few years ago.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Eliza Hallack, of Sedalia, Mo., is visiting friends and relatives in the county. The Waltons of the Interior Journal and Hardin of the Harrodsburg Observer were in town on Monday.

Miss Fannie Rogers, Miss Judith Guest and Miss Virginia Grigsby have gone to Frankfort. Mrs. Dr. Edwards is quite ill.

The leap year party given by Miss Alma Craig on Tuesday night was decidedly a success. The ladies called in carriages for the boys, took good care of them and, altogether, acted perfect gentlemen. They generally remained standing or kneeling while the gentlemen sat, escorted them to the supper table, and finally assisted them into the carriages and gave the usual order to the coachman to drive slow.

Some of the unwelcome members of the Chamberlain Society of Centre College seem to have gotten the name of King Cole and the Maine rumpus a little mixed.

Upon the eve of an election for 23d speaker a secret fraternity clique attempted to initiate for election purposes a young man named Cole, who was promptly black-balled. About a dozen or more members of the above mentioned fraternity and their dupes withdrew and threaten to organize a Rump Society. The vacancies caused by these resignations were promptly filled and the original society goes on as usual.

M. J. Farris sold to T. E. Wood 117 head of 3-year-old cattle, at $45 per head. The demand for mules is beyond the supply and every body is trading.

Preparations are being made for an immense crop of hemp next season. R. M. Fisher sold about twenty tons of hemp, several years' crops, for $6. The Marvin property was sold to H. M. Linney for $335.

COURT DAY.—A fine day and a large crowd in town; business lively; about 500 cattle on the market, selling at $2 25 to $2 50; pig horses from $40 to $60.

SEED MARKET QUOTATIONS.—Saplin clover, $6; red clover $5 50 to $5 75, orchard grass $1 to $1 50, blue grass 60 to 85c, timothy $3 50, hemp seed $2 50 to $3 00 and scarce.

Samuel Cox died on the 15th inst. in the lower end of this county, at the advanced age of 110 years. A. Bonner Sample, a graduate of Centre College in 1876, died in Fort Valley, Georgia, on the 15th inst., of typhoid pneumonia. A fever having breathed the slow poison of existence for nearly 85 years, James Kinnaid, Sr., departed this life, at his residence in Danville, at 4 o'clock p. m., on the 17th inst. Deceased was born in Fifehire, Scotland, emigrated at the age of 18, was shipwrecked in Long Island Sound, had the small-pox in New York and the yellow fever in New Orleans. He first began business in Lancaster, Ky., where he was married to Miss Eliza Ham in 1827; then went to Hustonville for a few years, then to Lancaster again, and lastly to Danville in 1848, where he has since lived as an honorable and upright man, a worthy citizen, and a kind and indulgent father. He was for many years an officer of the old Branch Bank of Kentucky and afterwards of the First National Bank, and in business circles was regarded as exceptionally prompt and accurate in all his dealings. He leaves a family of four sons, all grown and occupying positions of respect and esteem.

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

Mr. Vernon.

Several persons have been here during the week buying mules. Like L. & N. R. R. stocks they seem to have taken a rise. Mr. Chas. A. Reid sold a lot at $120 per head.

Besides his local counsel, the following gentlemen were here, this week, defending Grove Kennedy in the case of the Commonwealth against him: Messrs. R. M. & W. O. Bradley, of Lancaster, and Col. T. P. Hill and W. G. Welch, of Stanford. The attorneys present were: Geo. W. Dunlap, Judge M. B. Orsley, Geo. W. Dunlap, Jr., W. D. Hopper, B. M. Burdett, J. T. McQuerry, H. C. Kaufman and Jas. A. Anderson, of Lancaster, and Jas. W. Alcorn, of Stanford.

REMARKS.—Mr. John L. Whitehead has accepted a position in the drug business with W. M. Weber. He will stand behind the counter in the store on south side of Main street. John's well-known moral habits and his accommodating disposition will make him a popular druggist.

Hon. R. P. Gresham, of Livingston, and W. A. Burnside, of Pine Hill, were in town Monday. Hon. John Dismann, of Barbourville, was here this week. He is the best Democrat and the finest gentleman you can meet with in a day's travel. He will be our next Circuit Judge in this District, if he wants to be. Col. J. K. Faulkner, of Lancaster, is here.

On Monday morning a special term of the Rockcastle Circuit Court called for the trial of the case of the Commonwealth against Grove C. Kennedy, convened at this place. His Honor, Judge W. H. Randall, and Mr. J. H. Tinsley, Commonwealth's Attorney, were both promptly on hand. At the calling of the case both sides announced themselves ready for trial. Thereupon the attorney for the Commonwealth produced and filed the affidavit of Ben. F. Slavin, stating that "owing to the undue influence of the defendant over W. H. Albright, Sheriff of the county, said Sheriff would summon a fair jury in the case." The Sheriff was removed by the Court, and after much discussion and wrangling by the attorneys pro and con, H. H. Baker and G. H. Albright were selected to summon one hundred men from whom a jury was to be selected to try the case. The special Sheriffs were sworn and were sent forth to perform their duties, and the further consideration of the case was postponed until Wednesday morning. Wednesday came, and with it came the one hundred jurors. The lists containing the names of the jurors summoned were examined by the attorneys for the defendant, and the examination disclosed the fact that while Mr. Albright had secured impartial men, Mr. Baker had secured a crowd, a majority of whom were well known to be unfriendly to Mr. Kennedy or any other man who voted the Democratic ticket. Defendant's counsel then offered to discharge the panel summoned and to order a new panel. This was refused by the Commonwealth. Defendant's counsel then offered to dismiss the panel summoned and to have a jury brought from Laurel or Pulaski, which offer was also refused. They also offered to change the venue of the case to any other county, which was refused. It had leaked out that there were two factions in the county, one of which is friendly to and the other very much prejudiced against Mr. Kennedy. Counsel for the Commonwealth stated that there had been a scramble for one or the other of these factions to control the jury, and that as they held a "pat hand" in this lively game of chance, they refused to make any agreements. After a long and earnest consultation among the attorneys, the defendant filed affidavits disqualifying his Honor, W. H. Randall, from presiding as Judge in the case. Judge Randall vacated the bench, and no election for special Judge was held. The Clerk certified the facts to the Governor and asked for the appointment of a special Judge. Judge Randall then, against the objections of the defendant, adjourned the further consideration of the case until Monday morning next at 11 o'clock, and discharged the witnesses and jurors until that time. The dead-lock caused considerable comment but no excitement. It is generally conceded that the removal of the Sheriff was without any cause whatever, except to secure a jury who would be packed to convict.

And it is also further conceded that the removal of Judge Randall was not made because of any real complaint against him, but simply that the defendant might escape conviction by a packed jury. Thus ended the first chapter in the history of the process of locking up the county which might well be called the bad beginning of a second look. I have endeavored to narrate the facts, and am in full sympathy with the expression: "Let Justice be done though the Heavens fall."

CASEY COUNTY.

Middleburg.

Quite a number of hogs have died in this vicinity from disease, supposed by some to be cholera.

The Baptist church, of Middleburg, has called Rev. J. L. Weeks as pastor for the ensuing year. The Christian church has called Rev. R. A. Horious.

The house of Julia Lancaster, an old lady living alone about two miles from Middleburg, was burned on Friday night. She lost nearly all she had and was left in a destitute condition.

We regret very much that our esteemed fellow-citizen, Mr. G. G. Fair, a young and highly honorable merchant has been forced by circumstances to make an assignment. His assets are about $12,000 and his liabilities $8,000. Mr. James A. Estes is the Assignee.

Mr. Jesse Coffey's little son, Clarence, has been quite sick several days with remittent fever. Mr. Moses Coffey's little daughter, Angie, is very sick.

Mr. Uriah Vandever, after an absence of five years in the West, has returned to his family. Mrs. Jennie Scott, of Perryville, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Nancy Coffey.

Liberty.

Judge Orsley will hold a call term of the Casey Circuit Court next Monday to try some equity cases that have been agreed upon.

P. W. Napier has qualified as administrator of the estate of Mark Napier, dec'd., and will sell all the personal property belonging to the estate at public outcry next Monday, 20th inst.

Gen. Frank Wolford has removed with his family to Columbia, Ky., where he will continue the practice of law. Gen. Wolford has been a citizen of Casey all his life, and all regret to give him up. We wish for him a pleasant home and a prosperous business.

PERSONAL.—Master Peyton, a young sprig of the law, will locate in Liberty a few days to practice his profession. We are satisfied that Master will do well. He has a good mind, and then coming from the hands of Messrs. Hill & Alcorn, he is certainly a good lawyer for his years. Come on Master, you may defend us in all of our fights.

PULASKI COUNTY.

Somerset.

A $15,000 hotel at the depot is the talk now.

D. F. Bash's new residence on Mt. Vernon street, will soon be completed.

Mr. John Ridings delivered to Riley Wilson a hog weighing 614 lbs. net, at 41 cents per pound.

Mr. Henry C. Farris has purchased the Sears' farm at Sears' Landing on the Cumberland river, for $6,000.

The live stock trade is at a very low ebb, the greater part of the surplus having been gobbled up some months ago.

Our evening freight train going north usually pulls out from here consisting of from fifteen to twenty cars and flats.

Mr. Sawyers picked up a few plug horses Monday, and Oatts Brothers some mules, but I failed to get average prices.

Corn delivered is going at 50 cents per bushel; no wheat being offered, but at Mill Springs, on the river, it is selling at $1.20.

A little child of Mr. T. Q. Mills, two miles east of town, fell in the fire a few days ago and was severely if not fatally burned.

But didn't that seem glibly up the Republican party in Maine with a vim? That time the money was put "where it did the most good."

A farm belonging to Mr. James W. Richardson, lying on the railroad about one mile south of depot, was sold Monday for less than $7 per acre.

A large crowd in town Monday, and a great deal of whisky drinking indulged in during the day, and was protracted by a number of roughs till a late hour at night.

That newly married couple who go to the front porch to do their billing and cooing, should select a more private place; it looks too much like a fellow "licking his calf."

The New Orleans Minstrels filled their engagement here on the 15th. The company is composed of nice gentlemen, and their entertainment was appreciated. It was regretted their engagements prevented a second exhibition.

An unsolved problem has existed in the minds of our people for some months past, viz: whether old "Clem and Leta" go to the depot to meet the 3 o'clock train, or the train comes to meet them? All are to be seen there at the same time.

Over the window of Geo. Webb's gunshop is to be seen a wild-cat, with the fur on. Doubtless the animal having heard of George's skill in the art, thought to escape would be in vain, and concluded to come in and lay down the spoils.

Messrs. E. M. Porch and J. E. Tomlinson are talking of erecting at an early day, quite a number of dwelling houses on their lands in the vicinity of the railroad, purposely to rent. This is a move in the right direction. Sell your lots at living rates or build on them.

Rev. Mr. Pollard, pastor, has been preaching a series of sermons at the M. E. Church. I understand that Eld. Green Clay Smith will accept the call of the Baptist Church at this place, provided they would change their preaching days from the first Saturday and Sunday.

Isley Hill and son, whose arrests have been mentioned, were tried and discharged. Martin Jones, for robbery, was tried before Judge Cosson and bonded to the tune of $250, to which he failed to dance, and went to jail. John F. Sears and a woman named Hollows were arrested a few days ago in Whitley county, brought here and lodged in jail, charged with robbery.

PERSONAL.—Judge R. J. Breckinridge, of the Common Pleas Court, arrived last Saturday, and convened his Court Monday morning. Miss Nannie Holden has been elected Assistant Superintendent of the Sabbath School at the M. E. Church South, at this place. She is a very worthy and amiable christian lady. Robert Riley, a prominent Railroad man, was in town last Monday. J. B. Gindler, of the house of Seiers & Co., Louisville, was here this week.

Attorney Alcorn, of Stanford, candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Judgeship, has been in town several

WINTER WILL COME! IT NEVER FAILS.

READ & PROFIT THEREBY.

We are the first to pull down prices and the last to put them up. We continue to reduce old figures, while others are forced to cry an advance. Our advantages in buying have been proven in our selling. People all over the country will testify that we originated the scale of low prices. Our increasing trade has alarmed our competitors, and our low prices have gladdened our friends. WE CONTINUE TO ORDER GOODS, AND, IN FUTURE, INTEND TO DOUBLE OUR STOCK. A One-Price Cash House is the only redemption for the people. We charge no extra per cent. to cover lost debts in crediting. This is an item to those who pay cash and a warning to those who buy on credit.

Our Clothing--Latest styles, best goods, lowest prices. Our Boots and Shoes--Largest stock and none cheaper in the world. Our Hats--Immense stock; all new and nobby. Our Gents' Furnishing Goods--Complete and desirable.

Over 500 samples of Foreign and Domestic piece goods from Devlin & Co., New York. Will take your measure and guarantee perfect-fitting garments.

Advertisers are numerous, but honest goods and low prices are scarce.

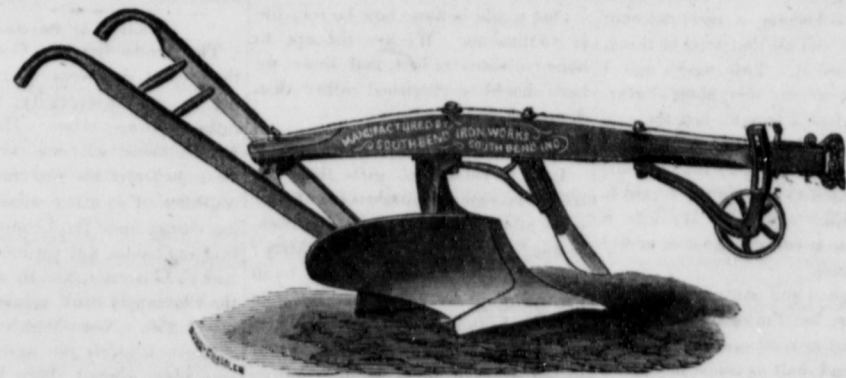

We charge you nothing to examine, but promise you money if you buy.

GEO. H. BRUCE & CO.

The Oliver Chilled Plow

STILL LEADS ALL OTHERS!

For the following six simple reasons and no other: 1. Because it is lighter draft than any other. 2. Because it will turn more land with same labor than any other. 3. Because it will turn the soil better than any other. 4. Because it will last longer than any other. 5. Because it is cheaper than any other. 6. Because, every time you place a new point on it, it virtually makes you a new plow.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

CLASS	PER LINE	PER COLUMN	PER PAGE	PER MONTH	PER YEAR
First	10	25	100	3.00	30.00
Second	8	20	80	2.40	24.00
Third	6	15	60	1.80	18.00
Fourth	4	10	40	1.20	12.00
Fifth	3	8	30	.90	9.00
Sixth	2	6	20	.60	6.00
Seventh	1	4	10	.30	3.00
Eighth	.50	2	5	.15	1.50
Ninth	.25	1	2	.07	.75
Tenth	.10	.50	1	.03	.30

LOCAL NOTICES.

CLIVEN and Timothy Seed at Owsley & Higgins'.
BARRETT'S in Church Goods at Harris & Nunnally's.
PRODUCER of every kind wanted by Harris & Nunnally's.
FOR RENT—A No. 1 Stable and Carriage House. Apply to A. R. Penny.
IF you wish a good glass of Ale or Beer, call at J. W. Ruff's Ale Saloon.
HARRIS & NUNNELLEY have just received a nice new lot of New Orleans Sugar and Molasses.
THE settlement of your account is now needed. Please call and settle at once by cash or note. McRoberts & Stage.
LAST—A month or two ago, a small brindle bull. The finder will be rewarded for his delivery or information that will lead to his recovery. A. T. Nunnally.
GLAD tidings for all sufferers with Coughs and Colds in the announcements that Cousin's Honey of Tar is a never failing remedy. Deserving the most popular medicine of the age, it has no rival as a cure for diseases of the throat and lungs, and each day adds fresh triumphs to its long list of victories over Coughs, Colds and more serious affections of the throat and lungs. One trial will convince you. Price 50 cents, at McRoberts & Stage.

PERSONAL.

DR. O. H. McROBERTS is confined to his bed. W. H. Becker, Jr. is now salesman for Owsley & Higgins.
MISS KATE KNOTT, of Lebanon, is a guest of Mrs. S. C. Truheart.
MR. AND MRS. J. B. MOORE have returned to their home at Lexington.
MISS RUC CROFT, of Parkville, was the guest of Mrs. M. G. Nevins this week.
MISS ELIZA EMMERSON, looking fresh and pretty, is visiting the Misses Harbo.
MISS ALMA WICKERT, a charming young lady from Lancaster, is a guest of Mrs. W. F. Walton.
MR. W. L. LERKET, of Lebanon, joined her husband here this week. They are guests of the Commercial Hotel.
MISS LENA MILLER, of Madison, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. John J. McRoberts, has returned to her home.
MRS. M. A. MAXTER will leave in a short time for a two-months' visit to her children in Franklin and Bourbon counties.
WE failed to state last week that Master Peyton, Esq., had passed the examination and been licensed to practice law.
MISS ANNE BOWLER has returned from Gallard bringing with her Misses Jennie and Sarah Porter, who are now her guests.
MISS SARAH YEAGER, of Boyle, and Miss Floss Thompson, of Lincoln, have entered the Stanford Female College for the ensuing session.
MR. J. A. STEPHENSON, one of the proprietors of the Garrett County Silver Mine, was here yesterday, endeavoring to dispose of stock in the company. He is very confident that "there are billions in it."
MRS. N. D. GRANT, the lovely Miss Ella Landrum and Edith W. G. Dunlap, of Lancaster, and Messrs. W. C. Wherry, Stephen White, J. O. Dunn and B. C. Stockton, of Richmond, are expected to leave this night.
MISS JULIA LOVELL, who has been attending the Female College here, will leave in a few days for her home in Vancouver, Ky. Bismar says that her school days are ended and that she will soon—but not that year. She is a most handsome and attractive young lady, and the many friends that she has made here will ever remember her with pride and good wishes.
True Ball of Home this week is as follows: M. R. Lytle, J. L. Dawson, Jr., Stanford; Geo. W. Carpenter, Waco, Texas; Mrs. Polly Blanks, Camden Point, Mo.; W. H. Higgins, Wm. Young, College Hill, Ky.; Wm. Sewder, Danville, Ill.; H. A. Hudson, Lancaster; Judge S. M. Boone, Danville; Mrs. Sallie Bower, Clark Springs, Tenn.; by P. H. Laid, Wm. Corbin, Centerville, Ky.; Miss Mary Maupis, Katlin, Mo.; Joe. Bisco, Louisville; Mrs. M. A. Martin, Judge M. C. Saufey, Stanford; J. A. Doty, Hyattsville, T. J. Coffey, Mt. Vernon, W. L. Kirby, Savannah, Mo.; by Sam M. Burdett, William Wallace, Point Lick, George W. Ashlock, Gilbert Creek, Nathan Daugherty, W. H. Murphy, Stanford.

LOCAL MATTERS.

CALL and examine 5 and 10 cent counters at James T. Carson's.
OWSLEY & HIGGINS are agents for the celebrated Hamilton Plow.
TRACE chains, collars, hames blind-bridles, etc., at Owsley & Higgins.
FARM FOR SALE—For a good and cheap little farm of 80 acres, situated near Stanford, call on B. G. Alford at once.
FOR plows of all kinds, also plow points, clevises, bolts, plow harness, etc., go to headquarters, which is at Geo. D. Wear's.
SUPPER—The Odd Fellows gave an oyster supper Tuesday night, which was largely attended by members of neighboring lodges.
CORN SALE—Mr. George H. Bruce is shipping 500 barrels of corn to the Silver Creek distillery, for which he gets $2.00 per barrel on the cars here.
NEW DESIGNS—Mr. L. T. Shull, the Photographer, is introducing almost daily wonderful improvements and designs in his line. Call at his Gallery and see them.
FIVE AND TEN—It is surprising to see the many useful and valuable articles that can be purchased at James T. Carson's for 5 and 10 cents. Call and you will be sure to buy.
MARSH GRASS—The L. & N. R. R. will sell tickets to the Marsh Grass at New Orleans, good from the 1st of February to the 1st of March for $25 from Louisville for the round trip.
PARDONED—John Cain, who was sent from this county to the Penitentiary for ten years for assisting in burning a house of ill-fame, has been pardoned by the Governor. He had served since last April.

TO TEACHERS.—Commissioner Jno. M. Phillips asks us to say to the teachers that he has none of the school funds in his hands, but as soon as he receives it from the Auditor, will give notice through these columns.

THE WEATHER.

The weather continues warm, and for the most part clear. A thunder storm accompanied by rain occurred Wednesday night, and yesterday was a little cooler, but the thermometer has ranged for the past week between 45° and 60°.

THE RUSH.

At the Photograph gallery is so great that Mr. Shull has had to employ an assistant, and still he can scarcely keep up with his work. He is the best photographer ever in Stanford, and a trial will convince you of the fact.

AS WILL BE SEEN BY OUR REPORTS,

the mule market is more active than it has been for years. The big cotton crop has brought money to the South, and the planters are preparing to purchase stock and increasing their labor to put in a larger crop than ever.

THE COLLEGE CONCERT.

Last night was well attended, Lancaster, Richmond and other neighboring towns being represented. Some excellent music was given—but we have not space at this hour to give as an extended notice as the performance deserves.

A MARVEL.

The accuracy with which Mr. Shull, the Photographer, enlarges the smallest picture, and the low price that he charges for such work, is a surprise to all who see it. He is a native of this county, and his father was one of the citizens and many are embracing the splendid opportunity to get a full size picture of some dear departed friend.

GAVE BAIL.—Constantine Taylor, the man whom it is alleged that the Uptons groves cut in sundry places and carried his head in within six, is fast recovering. The Uptons have given bail, and were released from jail this week. There are now but three prisoners confined here, Cain for the murder of Hiram Tucker, and the two Fredericks for killing Thomas Hatfield.

THE CALENDAR CLOCK MEN.

Have sold 836 clocks in this and adjoining counties since they came among us a few months ago. The value of the clocks is over $30,000. We understand that Mr. M. C. Lynch, the gentlemanly manager, will present the Presbyterian church with one of his handsome clocks before he leaves, and if it will cause a shortening of the sermon delivered there he will have done a good work for suffering humanity.

LOOK OUT.

The town Trustees having waited until convinced that the parties on the street leading from Depot street to the Baptist Church do not intend to build the pavement ordered, will advertise at once for contractors to do the work, and if the money for it is not forthcoming, will sell the lots along the street for the amount the pavement costs. Those that have been notified to repair had better do so at once, as the Board means business hereafter.

THE K. K. K.

We learn from a gentleman just returned from Mt. Vernon that there does not exist so much of a Democratic feeling for or a Republican feeling against Grove Kennedy as there is of a Ku-Klux and anti-Ku-Klux sentiment. If a Ku-Klux jury is obtained an acquittal is assured, while if an anti-Ku-Klux tries the case they will convict, no matter what the evidence. Can't the Governor step in, stop the foolishness and cut off the tremendous expense?

RECAPED.

The negro scamp, Ed Johnson, who was sentenced to 90 days in the work house for breaking up and selling for old iron a kettle, that he had borrowed from a white family by making a false statement, cut off his bail and chain the other day and made his escape. If the good old law of nine and thirty well laid on his naked back could have been brought to bear in his case, a great deal of expense would have been saved, and the law could not have been defied as it is now. Give us the whipping post by all means.

TOWN HALL.

There are a number of new subscribers to the Town Hall Stock Company, as will be seen by reference to another column, where we give the full list to date. The total amount taken is $3,150, which is thought to be sufficient for the work. It is now proposed to build the Hall over the stores of J. S. Murphy, J. H. & S. H. Shanks and D. W. Vandever, which will give it over 80 feet front. Mr. J. R. Carrigan, architect, of Danville, has been employed to draw the plans, which will be completed in a few days, and then the building will be let to the lowest bidder. A meeting of the stockholders is called for to-morrow (Saturday) evening, at 2 o'clock, in the Farmers' National Bank.

A RARE CHANCE.

For $275 we will send the Interior Journal, a large eight-page newspaper, for one year and allow the subscriber to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

STANFORD FEMALE COLLEGE.

In September, 1872, Rev. Mr. Truheart and his wife, Mrs. Sallie C. Truheart, of Virginia, took charge of this College, and together conducted it to select either of the following books: "Jane Eyre," "The last days of Pompeii," "John Halifax Gentleman," "The Posthumous Papers of Pickwick Club," "The History of Crime," "The Right Honorable Ben. Disraeli, Earl of Beaconsfield," "Erethan," "Journal of the Plague in London," "Poems of Wordsworth," "A History of our own times." These books are neatly printed on good paper, in paper covers, and will be delivered free of postage. We have arrangements with all the magazines and other periodicals by which we can furnish them at very reduced rates, when taken with the Interior Journal.

MARRIAGES.

